July Greetings Ladies

We are going to have a fun and friendly Mid Winter Christmas meeting on the 14th July with Entertainment and Supper from your Committee. If you would like to dress up in Christmas attire for the occasion please do so.

The BGM in Wellington on 12th & 13th June 2021 was held @ Brentwood Hotel which was a lovely venue. It went really smoothly, was informative, lots of questions were put forward to the ANZEG Committee and answered. The Remit on Miniatures' was voted on and passed to a YES vote (main point to define is Size).

Our Glasses Display was well received and looked great on the wall panel in all its glory.

Thank you to Helen Mackenzie who accompanied me, was my right hand assistant @ the BGM, and for the shopping spree that was done beforehand.

There were a few of us that went on a tour of the Textile Archives @ Te papa, which was very interesting. A few pieces were shown to us of Embroideries done in the 1800's – 1900's. Worth a visit (more on this at our September meeting).

Hope all those doing the Reticella Class on the 17th – 18th July 21 are enjoying their prep-work???

WAW is fast approaching & classes are filling up so don't delay as you could be disappointed.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

AGM is fast approaching too, there are Positions that need to be filled, please think hard about these:

President, Librarian, Newsletter, and Workshops, even doing a year or 2 will help the Guild to stay alive.

Thank you Ladies

Happy Stitching

Christine W

NEG President

Notices

1. From Committee.
Greetings All,

(a) Stitching at Broadgreen was reviewed and voted on at the last Guild Meeting. Members agreed to continue sessions on Saturdays and Tuesdays with no change to fees. These days are great times for stitching and fellowship. See you there.

(b) Following the informative presentation by Deborah Gibbs: Days for Girls, the Committee has proposed a Spotlight Voucher of $200 towards this worthwhile project. This will be moved, discussed and voted on at Guild meeting.

(c) As we have a good few new members, we are being encouraged to remember our NAME TAGS at meetings and stitching days.

2. The Lightbox is now with the Librarian. Please contact Sandra if you would like to borrow it.

3. Payments and reimbursements. The Treasurer asks that if you have money to be reimbursed from NEG funds, you must complete an Expense Claim Form and attach an itemised receipt, not just an eftpos receipt.

4. ART AND YOU Workshop, 12 July - 16 July, 2021. See website for more information: www.artandyou.co.nz.

5. VACANCIES ON COMMITTEE.
At the following Guild meetings, there will be nomination forms for the vacancies on The NEG Committee. The positions that are available for members to consider are: President, Vice President, Newsletter, Library and Workshops.

Mid Winter Night

Winter is here and whilst we can't guarantee hot Mulled Wine and Christmas Tarts, we can guarantee a nice supper and Christmas Cake. Thank you to Marylyn for the Cake.
Would be great to see you in your Christmas finery for a fun night.

Four Panel Project

We have 14 interested in the next project starting August. I will have the sample at the clipboard July meeting for those who missed. registering.
The Guild was kindly donated some 30 Count fabric from Koe and I will have this available for those who wish to use some. The actual pattern is done on 32 Count Belfast linen. Please let me know your preference.

Julie Clement – Reticella Workshop – 17 and 18 July

We now have 16 attendees for Julie's workshop.

As a reminder the Guild Bank account number is 03 0703 0462017 00
If you have any questions, please email me as below.

Happy Stitching

Library

I hope everyone has had more opportunities with this rainy weather to do lots of stitching. A new Giuliana Magazine for next Guild meeting. A knitting bag, whitework and designs from Church friezes.

The next stocktake is to be held late August / early September, this is a very early reminder only.

Happy stitching Sandra

What a Weekend

Hi everyone,

Classes are steadily filling, with two of them having only 1 space each left, and two others virtually filled.

The Richmond library display cases have been booked for August and the committee would appreciate receiving your pieces of embroidery for this. The items don't necessarily have to have been from a What a Weekend class, and a wide variety of embroidery styles will make it interesting. We would love to have a junior section on display too, to show off their stunning work. Please give your pieces to Carol Barker or Josie McDonald at either our next guild meeting or at one of our stitch and chat days. These are needed no later than 30 July (World Embroidery Day!). Don't forget to wrap them carefully, put your name with it and a short description of the piece.

I have flyers available for placement in suitable places as well. Your help displaying these would be appreciated.

If you are able to help with billeting participants attending WAW, please email me on carolbee@xtra.co.nz with your name and contact information. Please don't just tell me as I am liable to forget before I can write it down!

On a final note, I have three wonderful ladies who paid their fees in May for What a Weekend, but I have yet to receive their registration forms. I am unable to find them in the White Pages etc so if you can help me get in contact with these ladies, it would be appreciated: Shirley Cochrane (I have left a phone message for her but she hasn't replied), Judy Brownlie (Blenheim), and Janet Robinson (Porirua).

Cheers,
Carol Barker
